Living the Catholic Faith in Public Life

Friday, September 14, 2012
Villanova University School of Law

The Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., who was installed as the Archbishop of Philadelphia on September 8, 2011, will deliver the keynote address. Prior to Philadelphia, Chaput served as Archbishop of Denver from 1997-2011 and Bishop of Rapid City, South Dakota, from 1988-1997. In his book Render Unto Caesar: Serving the Nation by Living Our Catholic Beliefs in Political Life (Doubleday, 2008), Archbishop Chaput analyzes the balance between religion and politics and argues that our public life must be considered within the context of its Christian roots. Archbishop Chaput calls on Catholics to take an active, vocal, and morally consistent role in public debate.
